SHOT DOWN AT SIGHT.

A Man Travels Five Bundred Miles to Kill the Alleged Betrayer of His Wife.

William Singleton, who was employed at a saw mill, at Shellmound on the Nashville and Chattanooga railroad, was shot at that place Monday afternoon, by a man-named T. J. Johnson, who halls from Geneva, Illinois.

Johnson tells the following story in vindication of his conduct: About a year and a half ago, Singleton lived in Geneva. While there he became too intimate with While there he became too intimate with Johnson's wife, but soon after left the place. Since that time he had been corresponding with Mrs. Johnson. The husband intercepted their letters and found them such as ought not to be written to another man's wife nor answered by her. He therefore determined to hant Singleston up and kill him.

He arrived at Chattanooga Monday morning, and Jearning that Singleton was at Shellmound, announced publicly that he intended to kill him, and left for that place in the afternoon. On arriving at Shell-intended to kill him, and left for that place in the afternoon. On arriving at Shell-mound he found Singleton at work. Advancing upon him he cried: "I've come 500 miles tokill you." took deliberate aim with his revolver and fired five times at him, two of the balls taking effect in Singleton's breast on the right side, probably entering his lungs, and one in the upper portion of the thigh.

Johnson was arrested, taken to Chattanooga and lodged in Jail.

Singleton was conveyed to Chattanooga also, where he received proper attention at the residence of Perry Ransom. Inflammation had set in at "o'clock vesterday morning, and it was believed that he would not live twenty-four hours.—Nosh. Baomer.

ESCAPE OF THE ASSASSIN JOHNSON.

T. J. Johnson, the man who shot Mr.

W. G. Singleton a few days since, has effected his escape. He was given into the hands of a "country Squire" for safe keeping, who in order to make sure of his man took him to bed with him. Of course, Johnson was not so big a fool as to remain in "durance vile" of that kind. He rose during the night, helped himself to his revolver and went on his way in peace.

Really crime is becoming a staple article, and the responsibility of public office is fast losing its weight, when such cold-blooded assassins are turned loose in so damnable a manner as this. Would it not pay to establish a firm of highway robbers. It would in the present state of affairs we think bring a good income, with but very little risk.—Chat. Times, 15th.

The Kentucky University.

MESSES, EDITORS: A contributor says. that "if" he is "correctly informed, the College in Kentucky which received the agricultural fund for that State matricuagricultural fund for that State matricu-lated during its last collegiate year, eight hundred and fifty students." The number stated is, I think, over the mark. It was not, however, a college, but a university, which received the fund referred to, and more than that, a well endowed university, with some half dozen colleges within it, organized and in actual operation. East Tennessee University has but one college established and at work within it, and it has not the means to create and carry on any additional colleges. The State Agriany additional colleges. The State Agri-cultural College at knowville, and is doing as well, all things considered, as the Ken-tucky Agricultural College at Lexington, Ky. If the State and the citizens will supply the Trustees of the East Tennessee University with funds to organize and conduct four or five more colleges-a law college, a medical college, a commercial college, &c., as the large endowments of the Kentucky University, outside of the Agricultural College fund, enable it to earry on, then the East Tennessee University may at once become a rival of the Kentucky institution in the number of its matriculated students. The citizens of Lexington gave the Kentucky University, a few years since, one hundred thousand dollars. Let Knoxville, or its citizens, do the same for this University, and a good start will then be made towerds sustaining it, according to its name and charter, i. e., inclusive of several colleges.

It is worthy of note by the way, that, as I have been told by a gentleman who visited the Kentucky University last summer, the way in which that institution presents to the public such an enormous number of to the public such an enormous number of students, is by reckoning among them under the head of "Bible College," the ministers of the Campbellite denomination sent out during the year. That sect controls the Kentucky University, and the Kentucky Legislature was recently discussing the question of withdrawing the Agricultural College fund from it, on the ground of its sectarianism. Observer. to the public such an enormous number of

AN UGLY BLOW TO AMNESTY .- Fred. AN UGLY BLOW TO AMNESTY.—Fred. Douglass; the veteran colored apostle of emancipation, has been snubbed by the clerk of a hotel in St. Louis, and denied accommodations usually extended to respectable travelers. In this the St. Louis hotel clerk made a blunder. Fred. Douglass is a representative man of his class and color. He behaves himself decently, and, ho doubt, laves himself as frequently as many of the write guests who patronize hotels or stange upon hotel landlords. The hotels or sponge upon hotel landlords. The emancipation of the colored race and their elevation to all the political rights and pre-rogatives of white people have given the colored man a political position which the Constitution recognizes and the laws of the republic enforce. We fear this blun-der on the part of the St. Louis hotel clerk will have a damaging effect upon the gen-oral annesty bill now before Congress.— N. Y. Heraid:

American Securities Advanced.

New York, Feb. 13.—Messrs Henry Clews & Co., of this city, received to day cable advices from their London house, Clews, Habicth & Co., Government agents, confirming the recovery of American securities from the decline in values occasioned by the recent panic, and adding also that the violent denunciations of the American Government by the Eaglish American Government by the English Ministry meet reprobation throughout London financial circles, and that a concil fatory feeling is manifested by the public at large, showing itself in some instances by a demand for a change in the ministry. They see no cause for the apprehensions which have been so prevalent.
